CFPM & Food Handlers Card Information

Certified Food Protection Manager (CFPM) - Jefferson County requires the person in charge to have an ANSI-accredited CFPM and to be on site during all hours of operation at all food establishments unless only commercially processed, prepackaged food is handled and sold. You must have at least one CFPM prior to opening your establishment. Those holding an ANSI-accredited CFPM are not required to obtain a food handler's card.

See the link below and read the CFPM section under the red button:

<https://www.jchdwv.org/food-safety/food-handlers-cards/>

Food Handlers cards - Per the Jefferson County Board of Health, every employee serving, storing, or selling potentially hazardous foods or working with unpackaged food, food equipment, or utensils, or food contact surfaces in an establishment that is required to have a food establishment permit, including temporary food vendors must have a food handler's card, issued by the Jefferson County Health Department or a WV State food handler's card. Cards must be obtained within 30 days of hiring. See the link below for instructions on how to obtain your card:
